Nov. 20/54.

Dear Mr. May,

The enclosed bill, receipted, Mr. Mallard says was left here for you some little time since; but I did not see it until yesterday.

You have not, probably, forgotten your little note to the Bazaar of Ten dollars. — There is no immediate haste about the payment, but I shall soon be making up the Bazaar account, say in a week or ten days; and if quite convenient for you to forward before the 1st of February, we should like it; but that is not indispensable.

All well as usual.

Truly Yours,
Saml. May Jr.
